

What?

One thing that I regret a lot nowadays is...

I should have made
you study Korean harder
while we lived in Korea

...that we didn't try very hard for Alex to study Korean.

I know you want to study Korean here and there and we studied
together

Yeah. My Korean was the best among the foreigners
I knew

Because I feel that it's been much harder to study Korean as we're out of the country.

"Hie dong-ga: except for me"

Our Korean study is even harder because the student is so playful.

However, I often try to teach him some random Korean terms.

I guess trying this way is better than doing nothing.

WY-der-mas!!!

And a review time!
